IMPORTANT ACCOUNT INFORMATION

Now with Early Pay Day, you can get paid earlier when you have Direct Deposit.

Effective September 19, 2022, the following information will be incorporated into the "Depositing Funds" section of your Deposit Account Agreement. (NOTE: As the bank launches Early Pay Day, the service may not be immediately available in all areas or for all accounts. Monitor your account activity after September 19th to determine whether any of your eligible direct deposits have been made available early. Until Early Pay Day is available for your account, and subject to the disclosures below, you should expect to receive your direct deposits on your normally scheduled pay dates.)

Early Pay Day (Consumer accounts only)

For certain eligible direct deposits, we may make funds available for your use up to two days before we receive the funds from your payor. When funds are made available early, they will be reflected in your account's available balance. Whether we make funds available early depends on (1) when we receive the payor's payment instructions, (2) any limitations we set on the amount and frequency of early availability, and (3) standard fraud prevention screening. The criteria we use for making funds available early is determined in our sole discretion, based on confidential criteria necessary for maintaining the security of your account and our payment services, and is subject to change without notice.

Not all direct deposits are eligible for Early Pay Day. Eligible direct deposits are limited to electronic direct deposits such as your payroll, pension, and government benefit payments. Items such as deposits of funds from person-to-person payments services (e.g., Zelle, Venmo, or PayPal transfers) and other online transfers are not eligible for Early Pay Day. The Bank does not guarantee that any direct deposits will be made available before the date scheduled by the payor, and early availability of funds may vary between direct deposits from the same payor. For interest-bearing accounts, interest on your incoming direct deposit will begin accruing on the business day we receive credit for the deposit from your payor's bank. Direct deposits made available early with Early Pay Day will not count towards applicable options to avoid your account's monthly service fee until the deposit posts to your account and is no longer pending (e.g., the pay date scheduled by your payor). Except as expressly set forth herein, funds made available early are subject to the same terms and conditions as other deposits to your account.

If we've made funds available early and the payor reverses or requests a return of the deposit, or the funds are otherwise uncollected by the Bank, you understand and agree that we may debit your account up to the amount of the deposit that was previously made available - even if you have already withdrawn the funds or it creates an overdraft on your account. In this instance, you are responsible for any fees assessed - including those charged by merchants or third parties - as a result of the overdraft. Early Pay Day is offered at the discretion of the Bank, and we reserve the right to cancel the service at any time and without notice to you.

Extra Day Grace Period gives you an extra day to avoid overdraft fees

If your personal checking or savings account is overdrawn, you now have an extra day to make a deposit to cover overdrafts and avoid fees*

Learn more at wellsfargo.com/extraday

*With Extra Day Grace Period, when your account is overdrawn, you have an additional business day (extra day) to make covering deposits and/or transfers to avoid the prior business day's overdraft fees. If your account's available balance as of midnight Eastern Time on your extra day is enough to cover the prior business day's overdraft items, the pending overdraft fees for those items will be waived. If your available balance as of midnight Eastern Time is enough to cover some, but not all, of the prior business day's overdraft items, we'll apply your available balance to the transactions in the order that they posted to your account. Any transactions not covered by midnight Eastern Time are subject to applicable overdraft fees. All deposits and transfers are subject to the Bank's Availability of Funds Policy.

Important Information You Should Know

■ To dispute or report inaccuracies in information we have furnished to a Consumer Reporting Agency about your accounts:

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. may furnish information about deposit accounts to consumer reporting agencies. You have the right to dispute the accuracy of information that we have furnished to a consumer reporting agency by writing to us at Overdraft Collection and Recovery, P.O. Please note that an account overdraft that is not resolved 60 days from the date the account first became overdrawn will result in closure and charge off of your account. In this event, it is important that you make arrangements to redirect recurring deposits and payments to another account. The closure will be reported to Early Warning Services. We reserve the right to close and/or charge-off your account at an earlier date, as permitted by law. The laws of some states require us to inform you that this communication is an attempt to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose.

■ In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers:

Telephone us at the number printed on the front of this statement or write us at Wells Fargo Bank, P.O. Box 6995, Portland, OR 97228-6995 as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt. 1. Tell us your name and account number (if any).
2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

■ In case of errors or questions about other transactions (that are not electronic transfers):

Promptly review your account statement within 30 days after we made it available to you, and notify us of any errors.
